

Warm greetings from Renmin University of China. Please accept our appreciation for your wholehearted concern to express solidarity with the people in China and to support all the efforts of the world in fighting against the coronavirus. For China, a complete victory is just around the corner. The spread within China has been brought under control.

Today I am writing about our new established Silk Road School since 2018 in Suzhou, Jiangsu Province, jointly organized by Chongyang Institute for Financial Studies (RDCY), School of International Studies, and Suzhou Campus of Renmin University of China. It has enrolled 106 students from 49 countries during last two years with the support of all parties. They followed the courses of Master of Contemporary Chinese Studies (MCCS) at Silk Road School in Suzhou, a two-year English master's program. And it is expected to enroll around 50-80 students in September 2020.

Now we are working on this 2020 Master of Contemporary Chinese Studies (MCCS) at Silk Road School, Renmin University of China promotion domestically and internationally. MCCS is a key measure by Renmin University of China (RUC) to actively support the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) in education and to cultivate future elite leaders for countries along the BRI that have a passion for Chinese culture and understand profoundly the path, model and experience of China's development.

There are four available specializations such as Chinese Politics, Chinese Economy, Chinese Law and Chinese Culture. Graduates will be awarded the RUC Diploma in postgraduate Studies and the degree of Master of Laws. During their stay, students will be given access to a privileged range of cultural and academic experiences, from travel to all corners of China to exchanges with global leaders and mentorship with experts in their chosen discipline.

If possible, we would like to ask you for some recommendation of excellent students to participate into this project, and your kindly forwarding and sharing of this program will be highly appreciated. We will provide comprehensive scholarship for every successful applicant.
